

A Self Portrait/ Newspaper Article

Directions: This activity is designed for you to reflect upon your interests and experiences. Also, it gives you a chance to practice how you would respond to a common job interview question: “Tell me about yourself and your future plans”.

Length: To be a minimum of four typed paragraphs of 150 words or more EACH.

Heading: 20 Point Font, Bold, <NAME- WORKPLACE- Grade>

Items to Include, but not limited to, in each paragraph:

Paragraph 1: Identify yourself as a high school student. Your favorite interests/talents- How and when you determined what these were.

Paragraph 2: School experiences, skills learned, what courses you’ve liked the most and why.

Paragraph 3: Choose an intellectual or creative opportunity from WBL that you have enjoyed and highlight how you have grown personally (skills learned, liked most) because of the experience.

Paragraph 4: Plans for the future; education/training (length, degree and school), in 5 years, 10 years, ... etc.

Note: This article may be submitted to the Cartersville Daily Tribune or other local newspapers for CTAE Month in February.

This article should be accompanied by your headshot.
